INTERESTED IN MEDIA?

Calling all Photographers, Writers, Editors, Graphic Designers and IT experts

Do you have a passion for writing, reading or designing?
Do you want to work as a journalist, writer, photographer or digital designer?
Do you want experience working on a publication distributed to over 500 readers?

RHHS is starting up a media team. As a part of the team you will network with journalists from the RH times, work collaboratively on the Rouse Hill High Newsletter and school website and help develop promotional material for the school including video and high quality print materials.
